About Berlin School of Business and Innovation

Berlin School of Business and Innovation (BSBI) is a private business school in Berlin. Officially launched in spring 2018, BSBI offers six study programmes (BA, MA, MBA) to their students. Sagi Hartov serves as Executive Chairman and Co-Founder. In order to ensure the school's international focus, BSBI cooperates with a diverse range of academic and commercial partners, such as the International Telematic University Uninettuno.

BSBI is part of Global University Systems (GUS), one of the world's largest international higher education networks. In total, GUS unites 55,000 students from 150 countries at 48 locations worldwide.
